

Life skills

Below are some examples of the skills some major organisations look for.

All organisations are looking for skills to compliment your degree, below are some examples from major organisations. Look on an organisation's website to ensure you have the most up to date information about what skills are required before completing an application:

BBC Values	Trust (the foundation of the BBC, independent, impartial and honest); Audiences (at the heart of everything); Quality (pride in delivering quality and value for money); Creativity (lifeblood of the organisation); Respect (each other and celebrate diversity so everyone can give their best); and Collaboration (great things happen when we work together)
BP	Drive, Thinking, Working Together, Influence, Business Sense.
Foreign and Commonwealth Office	Results oriented, Flexible thinking, Decisiveness, Relationship building, Making an impact.
Goldman Sachs	A passion for excellence, Belief in the power of the group, Integrity, Leadership, A desire to be challenged, A drive to make your mark on the world. (We want to know about the ways in which you have challenged yourself to excel, where you have served as a team leader or an active team participant, and instances in which your innovation and creative thinking have generated successful outcomes.)
Price Waterhouse Cooper	Communication skills, Initiative, Problem solving, Motivation Commitment, Team working, Flexibility.
PSA Peugeot Citroen	Building/maintaining relationships, Communication (written and verbal), Influencing, Achievement Orientation, Problem analysis, Judgement/problem solving, Planning & organising, Taking responsibility, Resilience/self confidence.
Shell	Capacity (analytical ability, thinking, creativity, problem solving), Achievement (drive, enthusiasm, resilience, self confidence), Relationships (ability to work effectively with others).
UBS	Problem analysis, Judgement & decision making, Innovation, Communication and impact, Drive and commitment, Teamwork, and Planning and organising.